

Mayflower 400

The International Mayflower Compact partnership was created to bring together 11 core UK member destinations across England, alongside the United States of America, the Native American community and the Netherlands.

The international Mayflower compact partners are united in their passion to commemorate the anniversary and to celebrate shared values of freedom, democracy, humanity and the future.

These locations have created a world class cultural programme which unites communities, inspires creativity and promotes understanding.

The 11 UK member destinations within the Mayflower 400 programme are:

- Austerfield, Doncaster
- Boston, Lincolnshire
- Dartmouth, Devon
- Gainsborough, Lincolnshire
- Harwich, Essex
- Immingham, Lincolnshire
- Plymouth, Devon
- Scrooby, Babworth & Retford, Nottinghamshire
- Southwark, London
- Southampton, Hampshire
- Worcestershire

All with their own unique story to tell about the part their location played in the Mayflower journey. There are over 30 million US descendants of the passengers and crew who sailed on the Mayflower. And the Mayflower 400 project aims to reach out to these descendants and other ancestral tourists to invite them to visit England.

For many the story of the Mayflower is synonymous with Plymouth – on both sides of the Atlantic.

However, several of the most well known of the Mayflower Pilgrims came from near here – in and around Retford, in the heart of Bassetlaw, North Nottinghamshire.

The Pilgrim Trail follows the stories of this group of religious dissenters through places associated with the Separatists' story - Retford, Babworth, Scrooby (home to the Brewster family), Austerfield (Bradford's birthplace), Gainsborough and Sturton-le-Steeple. Other sites of interest are also highlighted.

the PILGRIMS TRAIL

A trail around the Pilgrim Roots area of North Nottinghamshire, Lincolnshire & South Yorkshire

The PILGRIMS TRAIL

The Pilgrims Trail takes you on a tour of historic sites associated with the origins of the Pilgrim Fathers. After visiting the Pilgrims Gallery at Retford - half a day allows time to complete the Trail at an unhurried pace and a full day provides time to take a closer look along the way, at the peaceful villages connected to the Pilgrims story.

Littleborough Church

Retford

The historic market town of Retford now boasts its own mini-Pilgrim Trail. Alighting at Retford Railway Station, just 90 minutes from London Kings Cross, you are met with a sign welcoming you to the town now known as 'The Gateway to the Home of the Mayflower Pilgrims'. There are very attractive interpretation panels where passengers can learn more about the town's history and association with the Separatists.

The Pilgrims Gallery at Bassetlaw Museum depicts much more about the life of William Brewster. A short stroll across to St Swithun's Church, admiring Retford's beautiful murals on the way, to read the interpretation boards there, and then a visit to the Hub Visitor Centre which houses a Pilgrim Room.

All Saints Church, Babworth

Surely one of the most picturesque churches, it is easy to imagine the journey that Bradford and Brewster made along the former Great North Road to hear Richard Clifton preach. The leafy hamlet of Babworth is virtually unchanged since the 17th century. Children will love searching for 'Mousie Thompson's' original mice carvings in the pulpit and pews and visitors will appreciate the Pilgrim related art that has been produced by residents from nearby Ranby Prison.

Scrooby

There are two interpretation boards in Scrooby, located next to St Wilfrid's Church and another outside the Village Hall. Both buildings are well worth visiting to learn more about William Brewster and his fellow Mayflower passenger, Susanna White Winslow. Look out for the Pilgrim 400 apple tree opposite the Village Hall, grown especially to commemorate the 400th anniversary of the Mayflower journey, Scrooby was the first village to be chosen for these trees to be planted. They are also to be found in the other Mayflower 400 partner destinations. The international signs outside the village pub are a great photo opportunity.

Monks Mill, Scrooby

Austerfield

Just over the border from Nottinghamshire into South Yorkshire lies the lovely village of Austerfield, home of William Bradford and most Northern stop on the Pilgrim Roots region tour. Bradford was baptised at St Helena's Church, which dates from the 11th century, and is now the site of the Austerfield trail board. The church is at the centre of the village; close by, the Mayflower Bar, Eatery and Boutique honours the journey of the Pilgrims by providing hospitality to modern visitors.

Sturton le Steeple

Birthplace of John Robinson, one of the key Pilgrims, Sturton-le-Steeple is an unspoilt rural village. The trail board can be found outside St Peter & St Paul's Church, the 14th century tower of which would have been a familiar landmark to local Mayflower Pilgrims. The Reindeer public house at the heart of the village makes a refreshing stop on the tour.

Travel on a little further from Sturton and you will find the hidden gem of beautifully remote Littleborough Church.

Gainsborough

To the East, just beyond the river Trent, is the town of Gainsborough. One trail board is situated outside the historic Gainsborough Old Hall - a building which the Mayflower Pilgrims from this region would have known well. The other is located near the United Reformed Church, dedicated to the memory of John Robinson, and a short walk through the graveyard connects these two historic properties. The Church also houses a new Mayflower Room which tells the Pilgrims' story.
